Did You Know?

FROM THE GLOBAL MISSIONS TEAM

Arlin & Pamela Hendrix, our missionaries in Lyon, France shared this photo of Arlin teaching some young adults in their most recent e-newsletter with this caption:

“Our young adults organized an outreach effort in Lyon, and others came in from churches in Marseille, Paris, and Geneva. All our Lyon members were also invited to participate in the Saturday outreach.

When asked what they thought of the weekend, all the young adults immediately replied they want to do it again as they learned so much and found their outreach efforts rewarding.”

BY HARRY SERATT, ON BEHALF OF THE ELDERS

Paul Morris

Paul Morris and I began our role as elders at White Station at the same time. I have been blessed to serve with Paul, and White Station has been richly blessed by the Morris family since the first day they arrived at White Station. We are thankful God led them here, we are thankful that the entire family has been so active in the life of the body at White Station, and we are grateful that Paul has devoted eight years of service as an elder.

I have seen Paul faithfully serve the shepherding commitments he has made. Paul and his family faithfully served White Station for several years before Paul assumed the role of an elder. Paul has been active in the Joint Heirs Bible class, and he has also taken an active role in teaching in other ways.

Paul is an outstanding example of a public servant who works hard for the benefit of our entire community. As part of his everyday job, keeping older people in their own homes is difficult work. It is also an integral part of the White Station mission: caring for the well-being of our community. Paul is able to make a positive impact in the work he does every day that is outstanding.

Paul has been a faithful servant in public ways and in private ways. If you listen to Paul describe his new career, you will hear him talking about things that are close to the heart of Jesus: serving those in need. It is important to note that the growth in Paul's role in his new job is a direct result of his successful management skills.

As Paul mentioned last week, his current employment is driving greater demands of his time, and we all recognize that grandchildren are GRAND - that they bring their own level of demands on grandfathers, grandmothers, and uncles.

Paul has family obligations that take up a lot of his time. Caring for his twin sister and his granddaughter are important responsibilities. While we will miss Paul's maturity and wisdom, we support his decision to step down as an elder at this time.

Paul and his family will continue their lives of service to God and this community in most of the ways they have been serving. I have made it plain to Paul that I pray that he will someday in the future be able to resume his role as a White Station elder.

We at White Station need to continue to keep the entire Morris family in our prayers. We love them, and we look forward to them continuing to be part of our body.

"Speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of Him who is the head, that is, Christ. From Him, the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work."

- Ephesians 4: 15-16
